

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND RESPONSIBILITY PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

All participants will be actively involved in onsite/offsite recreational activities including backpacking, fishing, rock climbing, skiing, and watersports. There are significant elements of risk in any adventure that travels beyond the trailhead in which trekking, hiking, mountaineering, rappelling, rock climbing, skiing, solo, snowshoes, backpacking, fishing or initiative games can occur.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK:

In agreeing to have your son attend Rising Peak Academy, you recognize the fact that there is an inherent danger in the following activities: 1) Falls, 2) Cold weather related injuries including hypothermia and frostbite, 3) Heat-related illness including heat exhaustion and heat stroke, 4) Acts of nature which may include: avalanche, rock falls, crevice falls, high winds and severe cold, 5) River crossings, fording or travel, including travel to and from the activities, 6) Risks associated with crossing, climbing or down climbing rocks and ice, 7) Equipment failure.

I/we also acknowledge that certain foreseeable or unforeseeable events may contribute to the unpredictability of the activity. Personal property may be damaged or lost and that I/we may suffer an accident or illness in remote places where there is no available medical facility and that wearing a helmet and appropriate clothing are basic safety precautions. As a potential user of the services Rising Peak Academy provides you have a right to ask the safety record and accident incidents of past participants at the program.
